VISION 'today we create, tomorrow we achieve, forever
we learn

LEGAL DUTIES

Meadowfield Primary School welcomes its duties under the Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000. As such we are committed to:

- Promoting equality of opportunity;

- Promoting good relations between members of different racial, cultural and religious groups and communities;
- Eliminating unlawful discrimination.
- Making our school a safe, warm and welcoming place for all.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

In fulfilling the duties listed above, we are guided by three principles:

- Every pupil should have opportunities to achieve the highest possible standards, and the best possible qualifications for the next stages of their life and education.
- Every pupil should be helped to develop a sense of personal and cultural identity that is confident and open to change, and that is receptive and respectful towards other identities.
- Every pupil should develop the knowledge, understanding and skills that they need in order to participate in Britain's multi-ethnic society, and in the wider context of an interdependent world.
- School will ensure consideration of children with communication issues, special educational needs and those who are younger will be taken in account when developing such knowledge.

THE FULL RANGE OF SCHOOL POLICIES AND PRACTICES

We ensure that the principles listed above apply to the full range of our policies and practices including those which are concerned with:

- Pupils' progress, attainment and assessment
- Behaviour, discipline and exclusions
- Pupils' personal development and pastoral care
- Teaching and learning
- Admissions and attendance
- The content of the curriculum

- Staff recruitment and professional development
- Partnerships with parents and communities

PREVENTING RACISM

As in many areas, prevention is better than cure. Meadowfield ensures regular circle times take place alongside PSHE lessons and assemblies to ensure that children are aware of the issue of racism and the damage it can cause to individuals and the wider community. This includes well selected historical learning. They will also explore strategies to ensure they address racism if they are faced with it. The curriculum is based around an ethos of understanding that no forms of racism or racial intolerance are acceptable.

ADDRESSING RACISM AND XENOPHOBIA

Meadowfield is opposed to all forms of racism and xenophobia, including those forms which are directed towards religious groups and communities.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Trustees are responsible for ensuring that the school complies with legislations, and that this policy and its relating procedures and strategies are implemented.

The Head teacher is responsible for implementing the policy; for ensuring that all staff are aware of their responsibilities and are given appropriate training and support; and for taking appropriate action in any cases of unlawful discrimination.

The Deputy Heads are responsible for logging all incidents of racism as hate crimes, informing parent/carers and informing the authority.

All Staff are expected to deal with racist incidents that may occur; to know how to identify and challenge racial and cultural bias and stereotyping; and to incorporate principles of equality and diversity into all aspects of their work.
